*Students need to successfully pass Latina Christiana to take First Form in Grade 4. First Form is the intro Latin class for Grades 5 and older, and the series must be completed in order.

**Veritas Press Literature and historical fiction selections will be used in these courses. Some will be required, while others will be encouraged as outside reading/read-aloud books.

***Students may need to move down a book in Well-Ordered Language, depending on their previous grammar courses. We will float students during this block depending on placement.

*All students will progress through the Memoria Press Form Series beginning with First Form Latin. Students may take Henle II once Fourth Form Latin is complete OR they complete Henle Latin I (we will not offer this two-year course at our campus yet but may do so in the future).

**Our upper school History and Literature classes are combined into one course utilizing the Veritas Press Omnibus curriculum. Biblical worldview is strongly emphasized as well and will integrate well with our Bible Survey courses. Depending on enrollment numbers, we may only offer one Bible and one History/Literature course for 7th/8th grade.
